"We have really enjoyed working with our client's at The Trump Tower and a huge thanks to all of them, as, it opened the doors to other potential project scopes in the building," said Karyn Musick, CEO and Principal Interior Designer of Divas N' Design.

Divas N' Design has worked with an upscale clientele, in several premiere buildings, throughout the Chicago land area, however, don't let this intimidate you, they also work with smaller project budgets and meet the design needs of all of their clientele base.
